UNOPPOSED MOTION TO TRAVEL

TO THE HONORABLE KEITH P. ELLISON:

Defendant Preston Fredrich, by and through his attorneys of record, James Alston and Shawn McDonald, file this motion requesting permission for the defendant to travel to Colorado from July 21, 2023 – July 24, 2023, for a wedding celebration. The defendant is charged with three counts of wire fraud. The defendant is on pretrial release with bond conditions attached as Exhibit A. As a condition of release, the defendant must remain in Texas, with travel outside of Texas requiring preapproval by the U.S. Probation Office.

Assistant United States Attorney Thomas Carter is unopposed to this motion.

United States Pretrial Officer Durward Minor advises that aside from verifiable proof of employment, the defendant is in compliance with his conditions of release, and pretrial services will defer to the court.
